

Please protect our open internet; uphold net neutrality. Corporations must not be allowed to price internet access according to their profit schemes. Our open internet is a resource “of the people”; it must not be sold to or controlled by giant communication corporations.